MILITARY FACTION IN GERMANY APPARENTLY WILL REORGANIZE THE ENTIRE GOVERNMENT TO SUIT THEMSELVES.

TO HOLD TERRITORY

Crown Prince, Von Hindenburg and Emperor Have Many Close Conferences that May Result in New Movements.

Control of the destinies of the German empire, press accounts from neutral countries agree, is passing into the hands of the militarists or the leaders who want to hold what has been gained by night and the sword.

Chancellor Von Hertling is again reported ill and preparing to resign, while the militarists, to resign, are demanding the dismissal of Dr. Von Kuehlmann, the foreign secretary, who has headed the German delegation at Brest-Litovsk.

Conference Held.

The German emperor and crown prince have been holding conferences with the political and military leaders. It is reported also the German ministers to Berlin have been arriving unexpectedly in Berlin.

On Italian Front.

The winter Italian front has not been broken by large operations. Raids and patrol engagements occur here and there. The artillery has been active in the official statement that Germany's huge reserve of 1,600,000 from the Russian front is to begin its hurried blow very soon.

ARMY AX SLAYER IS FULLY IDENTIFIED

Camp Gunson, Kan., Jan. 15.—A man found sleeping in the Fort Riley hospital Sunday, Kearney Wornall, sole survivor of the army bank batch of murders Friday night, confessed the dead body of Captain Lewis R. Whistler, propped in a chair facing the door.

That's the man—Captain Whistler, Wornall cried and faint.

Stage Carefully Prepared.

Military officials had been given the psychological effect of the little tableau on Wornall as he awoke.

William Huttig, president of the National Reserve Bank before the Kansas City and the army bank at Camp Funston, said today.

"I believe the robbery will be less than $50,000. It may not be over $40,000."

An officer stated $47,000 in bills had not been accounted for.

Major John C. H. Lee, chief of staff, today refuted the statement that Captain Whistler had committed suicide to "maintain the honor of the army."

German Planes Made Night Bombardment Of Yarmouth Coast

London, Jan. 15.—Yarmouth was bombed from the sea last night it is announced officially. About 20 shells fell in the city, three persons killed and ten injured.

The following official announcement was given out:

"Yarmouth was bombed from the sea last night. Fire was opened at 10.45 p. m. and lasted about five minutes. Some 20 shells falling into the town. The latest police reports state three persons were killed and ten injured. The material damage done was not serious."

Renewed Attacks.

Attacks by German naval forces on English coast towns, of which there were a number early in the war, have been infrequent in recent months.

The last previous occurrence of the kind officially reported was on September 4 of last year. On that day a German submarine, the U-109, was reported to have been sighted off the coast of Yarmouth.

CAILLAUX SAID TO HAVE CONSPIRED AS EARLY AS YEAR 1915

Paris, Jan. 15.—The arrest yesterday of former Premier Caillaux, was due principally to a cablegram from Secretary Lansing at Washington, saying that in 1915 M. Caillaux had been in communication with the Berlin foreign office.

Secretary Lansing's cablegram stated the American representative at Buenos Aires has been able to establish that M. Caillaux, during his visit to Argentina in 1915, had been in communication with the Berlin foreign office through Count Von Loebe, then German minister to Argentina, with the object of concluding peace with Germany at any price so as to permit the resumption of business. It is understood this evidence will be published in America immediately.

Came to America.

M. Caillaux sailed for South America in November, 1914, going first to Brazil and then to Argentina, some of a mystery being made of his trip. A general explanation was that he had been entrusted with an economic mission, but it was reported that the French government had real purpose was to bring about his removal from France. Later he made a visit to the Hague, which attracted attention because of the presence of the German Reichstag. Shortly afterward came his trip to Rome.

Refuses Information.

Secretary Lansing today refused to affirm or deny the charges against Caillaux, saying that the dispatch from Paris, which seems to be no doubt, however, that some such dispatch is contained in the capture of the Luxemburg correspondence.

INTRODUCE NEW DRAFT PLAN BILLS

SENATOR CHAMBERLAIN FAVORS REGISTRATION OF ALL MEN WHO HAVE BECOME 21 SINCE JUNE 5.

MAY GRANT FURLONGS

Would Fix Quotas of States on Basis of Men Placed in First Class and Not on Population.

Washington, Jan. 15.—At the request of the war department today Senator Chamberlain introduced a bill which would provide for the registration of all men who have become twenty-one years old since June 5, 1917, when the draft law went into effect.

Another bill which Senator Chamberlain introduced at the request of the administration would provide for furloughing national army men for harvesting crops and other agricultural duties.

In determining upon the registration of men who have become twenty-one since the draft law was enacted the war department has rejected any plan to raise the age limit of the draft to take in men more than thirty-one.

Enemy aliens were included in the basis for the first draft and there was much complaint. Heavy enemy alien population in some congested districts forced Americans to army duty regardless of exemption claims to make up for the draft.

The bill to permit troops to go to agricultural work merely would authorize the secretary of war to furnish men for civilian duty. It is known, however, that the war department intends to use the authority principally to provide men for harvest duty and other agricultural work vital to food supply.

Must Accept Records.

To facilitate collection of private insurance policies held by troops in the service, the war department has decided to accept the army office records as proof of death of men among the army insured.

Exemption of the new war tax on autos is the purpose of another bill introduced by Senator Chamberlain to deal with the large government purchases.

Investigation of Charges.

Congressional investigation of "slandering charges" against the character of American troops engaged in the Balkans was proposed in a legislative resolution today by Representative Cary of Wisconsin.

An amendment to the pending resolution for government control of news print paper which would have placed authority with the president to every day of the war, the senate, which voted to place the power entirely with the federal trade commission.

The Food Law.

Bills to amend the food law so as to empower the food administration to compel observation of wheat and meal, corn and any other measure prescribed were introduced today by Representative Lever and Senator Pomeroy acting for the administration.

MAY BAR SOCIALIST PAPER FROM MAILS

Washington, Jan. 15.—The district supreme court here today upheld the right of the postmaster general to refuse to mail the Milwaukee Leader under the terms of the espionage act.

The proceeding brought by the Milwaukee Leader against the postmaster general was dismissed.

It was the first case of the right of the government to exclude a newspaper from the second class mailing privilege for violating the new law.

CHICAGO SUFFERS A BIG COAL SHORTAGE FOR ITS FACTORIES

Chicago, Jan. 15.—Inability to get coal caused a number of industrial plants about Chicago to close yesterday, although the city and its suburbs made a great stride toward getting from under the snow drifts which have caused so much trouble for the week.

It is estimated more than 150,000 workers are idle through lack of fuel at industrial plants and the Chicago manufacturing district and the three large packing plants at the stock yards have temporarily suspended operations for lack of fuel.

The city's "local family," according to the authorities, the shortage being due in many instances to factories being unable to get deliveries to their plants. The thousands of employees at the stock yards who were stopped from work at their usual operations were employed in clearing the track entering the yards and stock pens of the accumulation of snow.

WIDE BREAK DEVELOPED AT CONFAB

LENINE GOVERNMENT AND GERMAN PEACE PARTY FAIL TO GET TOGETHER ON MANY DETAILS OF TREATY.

SPLIT OVER WORDING

Final Break Anticipated Which Will End All the Participation of the Russian Faction in the Conference.

Amsterdam, Jan. 15.—The Wolff bureau, the semi-official news agency of Berlin, published a brief-Litovsk dispatch as follows:

A control committee composed of German, Austro-Hungarian and Russian members for the discussion of territorial questions, held three long sittings on Friday and Saturday. It was agreed that the first paragraph of the peace treaty should be a clause announcing the state of war between the parties had been concluded.

The Germans proposed a clause reading: "The contracting parties have resolved henceforth to live in peace and friendship."

Leon Trotsky, the Bolshevik foreign minister, refused to endorse this phrase, which does not describe the relations which in the future will exist between the German and Russian peoples.

It was confirmed the evacuation of occupied territory by both parties should take place on the basis of full reciprocity so that the evacuation by the central power of Russian territory could synchronize with the evacuation by Russia of the occupied lands in Austria-Lithuania, Turkey and Persia.

Charges Made.

Later Persia was struck out as not being a belligerent party and M. Trotsky proposed to add the following: "Russia undertakes as speedily as possible to move her troops from Persia." He said he had no other ground for this than emphasizing the crying wrong committed by the former Russian government against the neutral country.

Negotiations Broken.

The Wolff bureau reports cover nearly 5,000 words and show the discussion concerning the evacuation of the central power was broken off by the parties failing to agree. A long discussion concerning which part of the occupied territory should be evacuated also resulted in a disagreement.

It was also reported that the question of admitting representatives of Poland, Courland and Lithuania to the negotiations, and on the question of what constituted self-determination by the provinces.

HIGH SCHOOL FIVE TO MEET EVANSVILLE

Locals Will Meet Evansville in Their Second Game of the Season at High School Gym Friday Evening.

Hard scrimmages work is in store for the members of the high school basketball team during the next few days to prepare them for the second game of their schedule, with Evansville, on Friday evening at the high school gymnasium. Nothing is known of the calibre and strength of Evansville, with the result that the locals will make an effort to be in the best of shape when the referee sounds his whistle for play to start.

The highs have played on game so far this year and were returned victorious over Broadhead by a count of 18 to 14. Although the high school team has little practice previous to the first game, they showed fair form, both on the defense and offense. They lacked the drive in the second half, but put up a large score after they had secured a good advantage over Broadhead in the early part of the second half.

About twenty men have been appearing for practice during the past week and some stiff opposition is expected before the men are given their regular places on the five. Sprackling has been playing well at left forward and appears to be a fixture at that place. Nichols and McDermott have been alternating at the other forward during the practices held. Allen, McGinley and Powers are also candidates for one of the forward positions. Feirn, a veteran on the high school team, has been cavorting around the center circle since the start of the year and scored the baskets against Broadhead. Ross has been playing center on the second team.

SPORTS FLOURISHING AT TRAINING CAMPS

[BY INTERNATIONAL NEWS.]
New York, Jan. 15.—The required four-team track to handle the 4,000 men taking part in the Liberty Loan track and field meet at Camp Sheridan, Mont., Ala., Oct. 4, and athletic meet at that camp is being organized.

For instance, Alabama being in the sunny belt, there was baseball all fall. A division championship series was played and 110 teams finished the season. The title was won by the 110th championship team. Felt banners were awarded to all regimental championship winners. Baseball has its troublous here, too, according to the division director, for he mentioned to the United Press the fact that several outland teams were in the field, aside from the regularly sanctioned leagues. Boxing shows are held as a regular part of the camp's athletic work. Joe Mancini, several years ago a famous lightweight, has been assigned to this camp as boxing instructor. A college team and a Y. M. C. A. boxing team are to be housed at the camp. The first big boxing show was held the night of Thanksgiving day, with several of the camp's best boxers taking part. The show also was on the program for a long time.

Each regiment has a team of cross-country runners. The team selected from the division's athletes finished third in the road race held at Birmingham Dec. 15.

Football, of course, too up a great deal of time during the fall. Auburn, Alabama university, Chulicothe, Camp McClellan and other teams of reputation have been at the camp a visit. The woods of Cincinnati and the Cleveland American league club are among the high class baseball teams that have been in action at the camp.

Favorite contributions, the Clark Griffith bat and ball fund, and the commission on training camp athletics have been good to the camp, and well supplied with equipment for athletes.

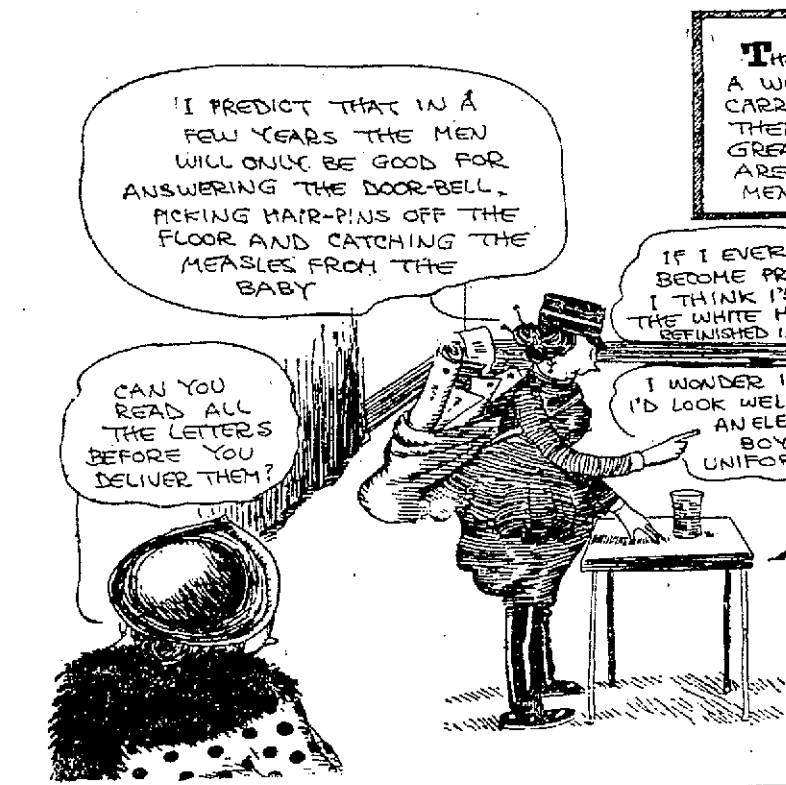

The camp numbers among its celebrities Lieut. C. C. Childs, a former Yale athlete, who was a member of the last Olympic team.

THE WEEKLY MEETING OF THE TUESDAY LADIES' CLUB

Edgerton News

Edgerton, Jan. 15.—The west-bound train due here at 7:40 last evening did not arrive in the city until after ten o'clock. The wagon companies at Stoughton were forced to suspend operations yesterday for lack of fuel, which accounted for the drunken mob that waited for the train.

The men waiting for the train were forced to leave the depot in the cold. In the ladies waiting room several drunks were asleep on the seats. A drunken brawl started in the men's waiting room and windows were broken and a riot call sent in for the police, who succeeded in making order. That conditions such as these are a disgrace to any city was expressed on every hand last evening by citizens who were on hand to witness the affair. If these conditions were not then our city should provide an extra police force and a patrol wagon to cope with the situation.

O. A. Mitchell, who has been connected with the Edgerton Barn Equine meat company as shipping clerk for the past year, and who is a Canadian subject, responded yesterday to his country's call to colors and departed for Toronto, Canada, where he will enroll for military service.

Warren Coon departed for San Antonio, Texas, yesterday, where he has enlisted in the ordnance department of the arsenal in that city. Lee Alder departed for Waco, Texas, today where he will visit at Camp McArthur before going to Florida to spend the remainder of the winter.

C. S. Farman departed for Deming, New Mexico, Monday morning, where he will join Mrs. Farman and will spend at least a month in the South, attending to the business of Mrs. Lawrence Bickle.

The funeral of Mrs. Lawrence Bickle was held from the German Lutheran church this afternoon. She died at her home, 220 small children, a mother, Mrs. D. Cross, and two sisters, Mrs. Wilbur and Mrs. Bickel, to mourn her loss.

The funeral of the late J. C. Hurd will be held from the home at Wednesday afternoon at one o'clock. Clarence Johnson is a Milwaukee visitor for a few days.

Mrs. B. Jagodich is visiting with relatives at Prairie Du Chien. J. Merritt Driver, the most popular lecturer of the Red Path bureau, will speak at the Methodist church Jan. 24, on the European situation today. Ask some one who heard him last year if you can afford to miss his lecture.

Fred Mitchell reiterates the declaration that there isn't a chance of anybody getting Pete Kilduff away from the Cubs. Mitchell will build his infield around the little fellow.

Jack Hendricks, the Cardinals' new manager, has been in Chicago for several days talking things over with Fred Mitchell and Charles Weeghman.

CHURCH BOWLERS ARE ORGANIZED FOR MEET

A Committee from Each of the Seven Churches Is in Charge of the Arrangements.

Organization for the church bowling league has been effected, according to the statement of Mr. Bearmore, secretary of the Y. M. C. A., this morning. The organization of the league is in the hands of a committee consisting of one man from each of the seven churches who have so far signified their intention of joining the tournament, which will be held at the Y. M. C. A. alleys.

The churches which so far entered into tournament are the Congregational, Baptist, Cargill Methodist, Presbyterian, Christian Science, United Brethren and Norwegian Lutheran church. The teams will meet every Wednesday and Friday evenings at the Y. M. C. A. alleys and the tournament will continue to the middle of March, when the victors will receive the trophy. The tournament will close with a banquet at the Y. M. C. A. and all men participating in the rolling are invited to attend.

Automobile Show Opens Wednesday-Auditorium

A Few Preachments For Your Perusal

In this space—but occupying the other column—we will publish, beginning Tuesday, a series of nine articles covering various phases of the industrial situation at the present time.

We will state in simple, forceful terms some sound facts on subjects about which there has been much confusion—much misunderstanding—and a consequent indecision and inactivity in all lines of business, the automobile included.

Much false logic—more plain sophistry—and a lavish application of harmful, psychological suggestion have been disseminated—most of it by persons whose intent was of the best but whose knowledge of economic principles was limited.

The handling of economic subjects by writers is a good deal like the preaching of socialism.

We are all socialists potentially—all seeking the practical way to make the World Safe for Democracy, economically as well as politically.

But, when the effusions of socialistic speakers and writers filter through the minds of the ignorant or the careless reader it frequently comes out in the form of anarchy or nihilism.

What the ignorant reader deduces is entirely different—and often in the antithesis—of that which the intelligent reader derives from the same words.

And so we find much misunderstanding as to what is our duty in this war time; where we must conserve, where spend lavishly—in order to accomplish that which is our supreme desire, namely, to defeat the enemies of liberty—to win the war.

Read the series—it will set you thinking; and maybe set you right on some points that have hitherto been obscure to you.

Automobile Show—Auditorium
January 16th to 25th Inclusive
Passenger Cars—16th to 22nd
Trucks and Tractors—23rd, 24th and 25th

Milwaukee's Annual Automobile Show opens Wednesday next—January 16th and runs for ten days.

Open every day from 10 a. m. to 10:30 p. m.

Passenger Automobiles exclusively January 16th to 22nd and, Motor Trucks and Tractors 23rd, 24th and 25th.

This will be the best Automobile Show ever held anywhere, we believe.

In the first place we have, in the Auditorium, a better building—better facilities for the accommodation of patrons, than either of the so-called "National" Shows.

You don't have to "Keep Moving" in the Auditorium.

The arrangement is ideal, and you can rest while you view the grand exhibit from afar off, and compare them all—then you can take another "close up" view of your favorites.

Every make of automobile and motor truck that will be shown anywhere—save only the freaks, for we have no curio section here—will be shown.

You need go no further to see them all—and you'll see them better here because of the capacity, the ideal arrangement and the brilliant lighting of the Auditorium.

Style Show—for the ladies' especial benefit—every afternoon and evening, when beautiful living models will parade on the stage exhibiting all the latest creations of the modistes and milliners.

You can't afford to miss this.

Come once and you'll come everyday, for everyday there will be some new feature.

Besides, the Show is so vast, the varieties of cars and trucks and accessories and attachments so many, you can see only a small portion in one visit.

We extend a special invitation to the "Up-State" dealers and the farmers and motorists of Wisconsin.

There are a thousand things here that will interest you—you'll be astounded at the progress that has been made in the solution of your own problems—in making the motor car still more of a necessity than ever before—if that were possible.

Come and bring the family.

Trains are running regularly again.

THOSE SERVICE FLAGS

There is nothing that should inspire the patriotism of the youth of today as the stars that shine forth in the service flags that flutter in many a window of homes, stores and various industries and places of business. Each star represents one more youth who has answered the call of the president, the cry of the suffering nations of Europe, to rid the world of the "Hun Horror" once and for all. Like the faded "dark and blue" stars that have been torn from the flag, the youth who have answered the call of the president, the cry of the suffering nations of Europe, to rid the world of the "Hun Horror" once and for all. Like the faded "dark and blue" stars that have been torn from the flag, the youth who have answered the call of the president, the cry of the suffering nations of Europe, to rid the world of the "Hun Horror" once and for all.

HOME DEFENSE.

One of the great problems of home defense is keeping up the food supply for the men on the fighting front. Rock county can do its share by planting an extra acre or two this spring to make up deficiencies that may occur elsewhere. It has been demonstrated that the soil of Rock county is as fertile as ever and can produce wheat of a quantity and quality equal to any other in the nation. A few acres in wheat will mean so much more wheat next fall in the total harvest. A few acres more of corn will mean more food supplies. An extra box or so, beyond the usual number raised, means more food for consumption here at home, while the meat and pork are shipped across the water to our boys in the trenches. Sheep raising will increase the supply of wool and add to the much depleted deficiency in this important industry. In fact, while the city man may work and toil upon machinery and finished products upon the farmer depends the winning of this war. He must be helped to plant and cultivate and harvest his crops. Labor will be scarce and the movement of boys youths who can do the work is to be commended. Already innumerable herds of sheep have been started by the action of the Commercial club's sheep distribution, that will grow in time to important industries. County Agent Medburn has secured for the farmers of the county five thousand bushels of seed corn, a most needed essential to this year's harvest, and as a bonus, city men and women, school boys, all under do their share, and by working together we can keep the "home fires burning" and do our individual share in winning this struggle against the foe.

GOVERNOR PHILLIPS

Perhaps there is no man in the state who is more discussed at present than Governor Phillips, and simply because he has done his duty as he saw it and has not been swayed by political leaders of past or present decades. One would expect criticism of his actions from leading democrats, from rampant La Follette leaders of today, and even those who have changed heart, of renegade republicans who deserted the party and voted for Wilson and still hope to keep their place in the public councils, but citizens, regardless of political creed, who look for a good, safe and sane state government should appreciate what the governor has done and how he has cut all political red tape here in Wisconsin and placed the state on a business-like basis as far as the last two legislatures would permit. He is now calling together an extra session of the legislature to discuss matters of importance and it is to be hoped that will meet with hearty accord of his ideas and give them the unstinted support to his thoughts. We are at war and this is no time for political or personal differences and all objections to the governor can be accredited to

THE ICE HARVEST.

There is no question but the supply of ice is assured for the coming summer. The extreme cold that ushered in the new year has given a guaranty of a supply for the next twelve months. It has been harvested under adverse conditions and with an unusual scarcity of labor and high prices paid for essentials needed to make the gathering of the crop secure. The City Ice company has been long in business in Janesville and can be depended upon to give its customers a sufficient supply during the hot months that are to come. Cutting ice and storing it is not merely a pastime, it is a business, and must be done, particularly in a river district within a limited space of time. Where lakes abound there is not so much of a rush, but with danger of sudden thaws and breaking up of the river ice, it means quick work when the opportunity comes and experts to handle the storing to see only the best is harvested. However, now we are assured of it supply, so why worry?

Chicago business houses closed their doors on Sunday afternoon at three o'clock to conserve fuel. New York plans to curtail the activities of the lobster palaces that have made that Gotham famous for the same reason and find that throughout the southern country the storm caused us to suffer owing to the lack of fuel. Two days of the old wood pile are gone but not forgotten.

The people who complain most because of delays to passenger trains, are usually the same ones who find fault most loudly when freight is so held up by passenger trains that the government can't deliver war supplies.

It is denied that the congressmen will seek railroad jobs for their political friends, as the latter don't want positions where there is real work to be done.

Having seen much in the newspapers about crop rotation, a young girl asks us if that is why so many men are sowing their wild oats.

After denouncing the food speculators, some people will go around to about ten grocery stores and lug home sugar from every one of them.

When a man circulates improbable stories about war conditions, ask him whether he is a paid spy or an unpaid clump who serves the spy's purpose.

Glimmerings are beginning to penetrate the minds of the Russian Bolsheviks, that the German moon is not made of green cheese.

Our noble ally, France, is nearly out of wheat, and yet many of our people have to be fed their wheat bread at twenty-one cents a loaf.

The Germans have five per cent of sawdust in their war bread, but as Kaiser Bill says it is good stuff, they all smack their lips.

ON THE SPUR of the MOMENT

ROY K. MOULTON

AN EXCEPTION.

Rudie McPherson contributes the following: "Begin at the bottom," so runs the old screed. "And work your way up, if you wish to succeed." We tried that plan once and we came to a stop. For lack of ideas and a long way from the top. And the place where the lines their astute wisdom shed. Was as empty and blank as our own silly head. From which we extracted the striking idea that the man who is writing a column, if he hopes with success his efforts to grow. Must begin at the top and work his way down.

We are patiently waiting for Herb to establish a machineless day. When this happens we will believe for the first time that war has certain advantages.

As an example of the unexcelled richness of the soil in Kansas, our esteemed contemporary, the Chicago "Trib" tells us of "telegaph poles being broken off or uprooted."

A LITTLE SLICE OF LIFE.

The other night I was invited out to dinner. It was a very elaborate feast, including all the delicacies of the sea.

We had filet mignon and head-lettuce salad. And ice cream and everything. And the host never mentioned how they used to.

After I had eaten one filet, they gave me another. And nobody seemed to care how much we ate.

During the dinner they served champagne. And afterward there was a delicious cordial.

They served champagne. At regular intervals, and along toward midnight we all sat down to a supper consisting of lobster.

Those who preferred them could have hard-boiled eggs. Nothing was too expensive.

It was one of the kind of dinners I served before the war, and I was never so happy.

Before and I had a strange well-fed feeling. Just as we were about to break up and go home.

SEED CORN WORST IN TWENTY YEARS

Scarcity of Seed Corn Threatens 1918 Crop.

Do Not Import Seed Unless Absolutely Necessary—Do Not Cut Down Acreage—Must Have Corn to Produce Meats and Fats for Our Soldiers.

By P. G. HOLDEN.

There is nation-wide alarm about seed corn. The condition is the most critical experienced in twenty years. The corn belt has suffered tremendous losses. Frost in September killed the corn and prevented it from ripening and drying out. When the unusually cold freeze of October came great damage followed.

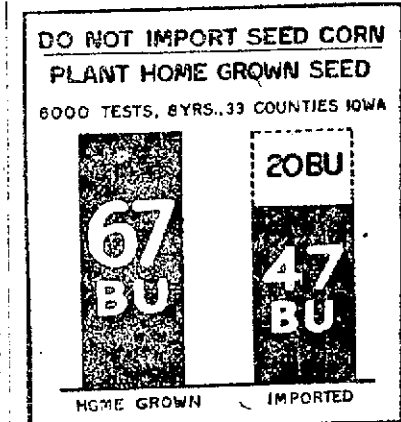

As a result, the first impulse will be to import seed corn. Corn grown from seed brought in from other localities will be inferior in yield and quality, and in many cases, total failure will follow.

We must not import seed corn until we have exhausted every resource to obtain seed in our own neighborhood. Rather than go without seed, import it, but get it from just as near home as possible. Thousands of tests made by experiment stations, tests made to 29

DO NOT IMPORT SEED CORN

PLANT HOME GROWN SEED

6000 TESTS, 8 YRS., 33 COUNTIES IOWA

states by the government, and the results borne out in actual experience, show the danger of importing corn.

These facts are in one locality, one test, for one year, in one locality, but for a period of eight years in 33 different counties in Iowa with over 6,000 tests.

In not a single case did the imported samples equal the home-grown seed. The home-grown corn, in every test, outyielded the imported corn on an average of 20 bushels to the acre, and was of better quality.

Will we ever learn to save seed? We can import potatoes, oats and wheat, but we cannot import seed corn and expect to get as good results as we would get from corn grown in the immediate neighborhood. It will be impossible to measure the loss of land, labor, food and money to the people of this country if we fail to realize the importance of these facts.

If you have old corn left over from your 1916 crop, keep it for seed and test every ear. Do not conclude too soon that there is no seed corn in your locality. Ask your county agent—write to your agricultural college.

Do not let the seed corn situation discourage you. The government is asking for meats and fats for our soldiers, and we must have corn to produce them. Regardless of conditions we must grow our usual acreage of corn; don't cut it down; don't put off testing; don't import unless absolutely necessary. We will not have fats and meats without corn. If you have no seed corn, don't wait until planting time, and then expect someone to bring it to you.

Realizing the seriousness of the situation, the Agricultural Extension Department of the International Harvester Company, Chicago, will send, free of charge to any farmer, merchant or banker, paper patterns of seed corn germination cloths and rag dolls, with full directions for testing corn.

ETERNAL BOYHOOD.

Strangers look for wisdom great; grown-ups think you ought to be. Always grave and circumspect, always sober in dignity.

At the office I'm supposed to maintain a certain pose. Like a grey-haired diplomat knowing things I don't disclose.

But when I get home at night, safe behind my humble door I can be a little boy, scrambling on the parlor floor.

I can leave my years outside, put my dreary pose away. I can be a little child, sharing in my children's play.

And when we are alone, with no stranger there to see, we can dip our crusts of bread in the gravy or the tea.

There secure from critics wise and the tongues that condemn I don't have to be a man. I can be a child with them.

I don't have to strut about proudly in the garb of sham. Letting other people think I am better than I am.

In that little place called home, barred to grown-ups' glances and jeers I can dip the yoke of care and escape the weight of years.

I can sing and romp and play, claiming still the old delights, I can be a child again sharing in their pillow fights.

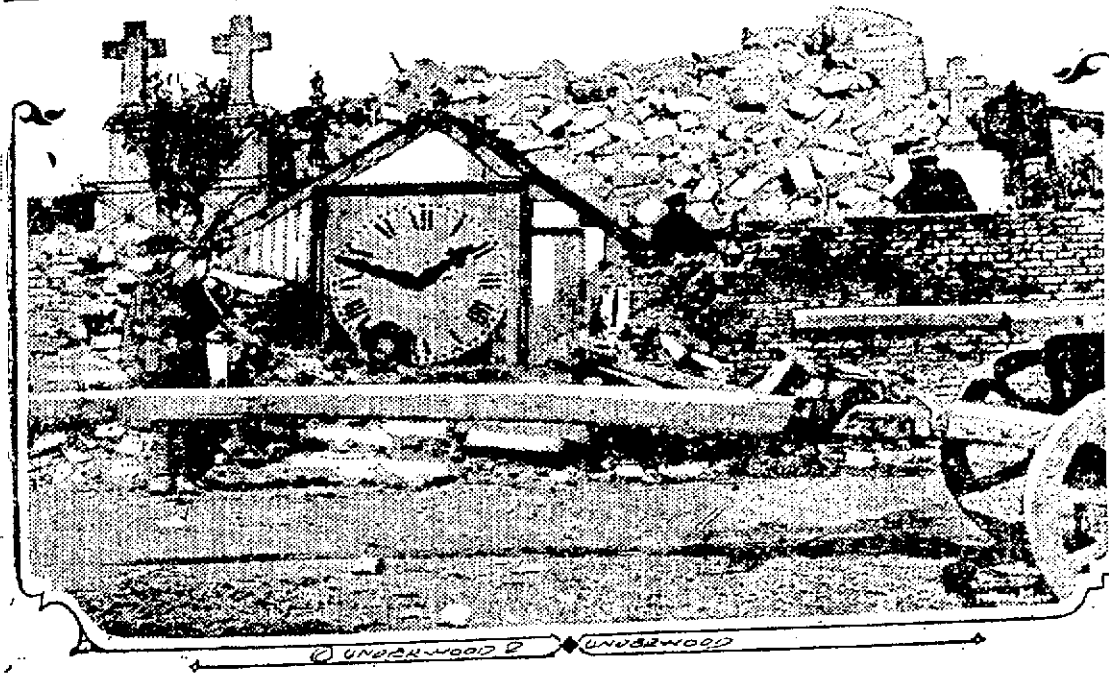

Age is but an outward pose; wisdom's but a thin veneer. Only to a very few as himself can man appear.

Down among the haunts of men he must play a serious part. Hiding, 'neath a manner grim all the boyhood of his heart.

So when I get home at night safe behind my humble door I forget that I've grown up and I'm just a child once more.

CLOCK OF BOMBED CATHEDRAL FALLS UNHARMED

A curious freak of the war.

Though the beautiful French cathedral shown in this recent British official photo was completely ruined after a German bombardment the clock in its steeple fell to the ground unharmed. The British soldiers, one of whom may be seen standing sentry in the picture, regard the circumstance as an ominous one for Germany and declare that the clock indicates the hour of the German doom. Germany's destruction of beautiful religious edifices continues.

Mrs. Cora Poynter was a caller in Janesville on Thursday.

Ervin and McKinley Snyder are attending school in Janesville, going in on the morning train and returning on the evening train.

Clarence Eggen came over from Oxfordville to attend the dance on Friday evening and was unable to return owing to the bad condition of the roads.

Mrs. Lee Snyder came up from Beloit for a short visit with friends here. Mrs. A. Silverthorn was a Janesville shopper on Friday.

The snow storm which began on Friday is today (Saturday) growing worse. The wind blowing a gale and drifting the snow which is piling up in some places in drifts several feet high and the roads are becoming almost impassable. Many of the teams hauling milk were unable to get to the condensery. Dr. Lacey was unable to respond to several calls as it was impossible for a team to make their way through the deep snow.

Mrs. Albert Bratzke is reported very seriously ill with pneumonia and pleurisy.

The lecture given in the hall on Thursday evening by Preston Bradley of Chicago was fine and was listened to by a large and appreciative audience.

Quite a number of ladies assembled at the school house yesterday to work in the interest of the Red Cross, although on account of the storm and badly drifted roads none came in from the country. Picnic dinner was served and quite an amount of work was done.

After-War Brides Will Get Jackies And Sammies Who Know Kitchen Art

Top—Model kitchen of the National League for Women's Service in New York City, where Sammie and Jackie learn to fight H. C. L. Below—Gettling a meal.

New York City, Jan. 14. The war is going to do a lot of things for our boys in the army and navy and going to do a lot for the girls back home who are waiting to marry the returning soldiers in saloons.

A great many of the girls who will be coming home after the war will be bringing with them some kitchen lore and knowledge of economy short cuts which will help to startle the fair brides, that is if the brides are not the kind who just can't bear to have a man around the kitchen.

In an old mansion, formerly the residence of James Spenser, at 257 Madison avenue, the National League for Women's Service has equipped a free cooking place and it is there that hundreds of Uncle Sam's boys are getting their cooking education.

Kitchen is a Model One. The women have set up a model kitchen where, seasoning, bread, coffee and all the necessary accessories are furnished free to the boys in service.

A sailor comes ashore on leave and wants to see a little of New York. The pay won't take him far at best and one of the big items to knock at is the salary in eating. But the sailor may go to a grocery store or a delicatessen shop and purchase a supply of vegetables, take his bags and packages to the kitchen on Madison avenue and prepare himself a meal.

All the necessities are there and if he knows how to make a meal, he can prepare himself a feast. The women don't know how the returning soldiers are ready and willing to show him.

The same holds good of the soldier on furlough. And the women in charge know the short cuts to saving which detract nothing from the savoriness of the viands.

At the suggestion of the women many of the boys do their buying in groups of three or four. There's an added saving in this.

Dish Washing Not Forgotten. In the top picture shown above a Sammie and a Jackie in the kitchen are making sandwiches. The Jackie operating a modern bread griddle while the Sammie spreads, in the background a soldier is wiping a cup. That's a feature of the kitchen too, let it be mentioned for the benefit of the future brides. The boys have to wash and wipe their dishes and utensils after every meal.

In the lower picture a sailor is being introduced to that psychological moment when an egg should be flopped. After a few times with the aid of the woman instructor the lad will be nipping them with all the confidence of a window cook.

Verily, the girls who get the frequenters of the canteen kitchens will have prize husbands—unless the fellow who's always taking the joy out of life whispers in the ears of the lady that being expert cooks, they can do well in bachelor abodes.

wonderful part," Salisbury says that his being handed the script and the letter at the same time was an encouraging coincidence.

Echel Clayton has severed her connection with the World Film company, it is announced, and will be seen as a Paramount star at the expiration of her Brady contract, which ends in March. Under the new system of things, she will be directed by her husband, Joseph Kaufman.

Like Getting Signatures. Sentiment is so easily molded that three or four active people, by keeping at it long enough can convince millions that water runs up hill instead of down.—Aitchison Globe.

Fond of Chicken Hearts. Lucy is fond of the hearts of all fowls. When dining out with friends she was asked what her choice of the chicken was. Forgetting the name for the moment, she said: "I forget the name. It's de part what makes his live."

The Wilkes-Barre Street Railway company have issued a call to women to train as street car conductors, anticipating an acute shortage of labor before spring.

AMUSEMENTS

MYERS THEATRE.

The fastest and all furious folly frolics and the cheeriest of all cartoon comedies, is the way press and public elsewhere are describing Bud Fisher's newest nonsense farraigo reintro-ducting his world famed rollicks, "Mutt and Jeff," in a tailor made musical comedy called "Mutt and Jeff Divorced." The production, which is listed for presentation here at Myers theatre on Wednesday evening, January 16, is said to excel in its scenic embellishments, costume inventiveness and chorus presentations which have made visits of the duo remarkable. Just how much scandal occurs to pry the twain in two, just which of the pair is the co-respondent, if either, or what the general direction of the story is or may be is not conveyed in the preliminary bulletins announcing the forthcoming local engagement.

Tibet History Lost.

The history of Tibet is lost in the obscurity of the long ago, for its customs date back to the morning of the world. Its people come from the ancient ages, and it is only known that they belong to the Tibeto-Indo-Chinese branch of Keene's Homo Mongolicus.

In his official report of the sugar situation our hero, Herbert Hoover says: "Everyone must reduce still further the consumption of sugar."

Jimmy Wise, belloy, says, "Step outside the doors of the Hotel and you are in the heart of Milwaukee's downtown pleasure and business district."

HANOVER

Hanover, Jan. 14.—Thursday night, January 17th, the young people of this town and area will have a dance at the Woodmen hall, the proceeds to be turned over to the Hanover auxiliary of the American Red Cross. Lever's orchestra of Beloit will furnish the music. Everybody is cordially invited.

The sewing room of the American Red Cross is open for work every Friday all day. The attendance has been remarkably good, considering the unfavorable weather. Still there is room for more.

Miss Laura Murphy spent Sunday at Mr. Spaw's of Janesville. She and Taylor shipped two carloads of stock from here last Monday. Miss Mildred Sheele visited her friend, Gertrude Zebell, from Saturday till Thursday.

Mrs. Paul Danrow and Mrs. Alta Waters spent Wednesday with Mrs. John Ellis.

Mrs. Emma Raymond visited with her sister, Mrs. Laura Eagan, at Orono last Thursday.

Dr. J. Luepke was the guest of his friend, Major Chas. A. MacDonald, staff surgeon 341st infantry regiment, at Camp Grant last Friday. He is highly rated over the splendid conditions there, both in barracks and hospitals. Our soldier boys are certainly well taken care of. Major MacDonald has gained fame as a surgeon and familiar with the U. S. army against the Sioux Indians, in the Philippines, during the Boxer insurrection in China in the Spanish-American war and the Panama Canal. In 1914 he was chief of the American Red Cross hospital at Budapest, Austria-Hungary, and was decorated by Emperor Francis Joseph with the "Austrian Order" and from Emperor William II with the "Order of the Red Eagle."

The services in both Lutheran churches, last Sunday, had to be postponed on account of the inclement weather.

Late Food Discoveries.

Lichens have been proposed as the latest addition to staple articles of diet. One scientist has suggested Iceland moss as suitable for making flour for bread and reindeer moss as good fodder for animals.

Thousands of families are by its prompt results. Inexpensive, and saves about $1.

URGES FARMERS TO GROW GRAIN SEEDS

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
Farmers, N. D., Jan. 15.—In an address before the Tri-State Grain and Stock Congress, which opened here today with farmers from Wisconsin, Minnesota and North and South Dakota in attendance, H. L. Bolley, states seed commission, North Dakota, declared that the farmers are justified in demanding that there be no more grain of such an ordinary quality, with ordinary facilities for handling, grain, than is reasonably needed to use the process successfully.

Mr. Bolley said that all growers and government officials interested should understand that the grain of such quality because, he said, a bulk of wheat may be of No. 2 grade for milling and yet be of a very distinctive type of grain to suit the miller's taste. When grain of such quality is lost, the loss is not only in the following crop, while the loss from disease and weed introduction would also be established a merit system of commercial grades based upon kinds or varieties of grain mixing in the local elevator. The law makes provision for the issuing of bonds or warrants for the county commissioners for the purchase of seed grain to be delivered to needy farmers, and in a general way, whether the contract was properly filled. Often these contracts were so loosely drawn that any grain delivered would have to be accepted, particularly as the contract usually called for delivery of a fine so late that the ground was already waiting for the seed. In some counties farmers have charged an unreasonable price for seed that was hardly fit for use. Ambassador Gerard's Diary Made His Book Possible.

To be indefinite is to be misjudged. If you cannot be certain of date, place or persons present at an event, your account thereof is not accepted as authoritative. A diary in which occurrences are recorded establishes with specific evidence the circumstances under which agreements were made or important events transpired. These statements were never more emphatically upheld than in the experience of Ambassador Gerard relating in his book, "My Four Years in Germany." He could not have written his book except for his carefully kept diary. As it was the ambassador's able to write accurately the conversations held with the Kaiser and his ministers through a most intensely dramatic and historical period. Not every person connected with this war can keep a diary, but it is nationally important as Mr. Gerard's; but everybody can keep one as personally important.

The two most necessary books in this interesting period are "My Four Years in Germany," a diary and an Encyclopedia Britannica. The newspapers of Canada and the United States are supplying to readers a combination of the two. The Soldiers' Sailors' Diary and English-French Dictionary in this city is being distributed exclusively on a simple coupon plan explained in this paper elsewhere.

BEEF SALES FIELD MUST BE INCREASED

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

Salt Lake City, Jan. 15.—Immediate need of a broader field for disposal of beef, mutton and lamb, if production of these meats is not to be reduced, was asserted in the report of the market committee of the American National Live Stock association, presented to the twenty-first annual meeting of that body here today.

Summarizing market conditions, the report said there is a tremendous shortage of hogs, a moderate shortage of sheep and liberal supplies of cattle in the United States; there is no danger of any other country invading the American stockman's market for some time to come owing to shipping shortages, it went on, and there are usually large numbers of sheep and cattle in feed lots and "liberal receipts of fat cattle and lambs at congested markets, which are selling at heavy losses to producers." It added:

"Curtailed in domestic consumption of meat on patriotic and economic grounds, the limited exports of beef, owing to lack of shipping facilities, and the growing danger that producers of beef and mutton will become discouraged on account of heavy losses, one faith in the representations of the food administration and curtail production next season."

"There is need of prompt action on the part of the food administration to avert this loss," it said.

There is also need, the report said, of a better understanding of producers' problems and a more systematic attitude on the part of the public toward them.

The report commended David F. Houston, secretary of agriculture, for his efforts to prevent speculation in necessities due to the war, and gave approval to the federal food investigation by the federal trade commission, with special reference to meat. E. L. Burke of Omaha, Neb., chairman of the committee, read the report.

Concerning the licensing of packers, recently put into effect by the government, the report said this action "is what we have wanted for years." A class relation, it asserted, should be maintained between prices of live stock "on foot" and "dressed." It continued: "Big declines in prices of foot should be reflected promptly in corresponding declines in wholesale prices of meat."

There seems to be something wrong in the operation of this very simple principle. It is one of the important things which should be checked at frequent intervals."

The report made a warm argument for extension to the cattle and sheep producers of the same sort of guarantee of a minimum price which has been given the hog raiser by the food administration. Otherwise, it said, there will be a disposition on the part of producers to "hedge by producing less meat."

LIEUTENANT GAINS CONFIDENCE OF MEN

(BY INTERNATIONAL NEWS.)

American Field Headquarters, France, Jan. 15.—"I'll follow Mr. Short anywhere."

A young slightly built Sammy paid this tribute to his Lieutenant within a few hours after his arrival back from the trenches. He was sitting on a mile post at the roadside, before the barn where he was, chilling the rifle that he carried in night patrols into No Man's Land with Mr. Short.

The lieutenant himself was making an informal inspection of his men—a friendly visit. As he passed on down the muddy lane, the soldier let his eyes wander after him admiringly.

"Mr. Short, discovered that the barbed wire in front of our sector had been cut during the night," said the youngster. "I supposed he would send for the engineers to come the next evening and put new wires in the hole. But the lieutenant was a wise man. He said no."

"All day we lay in the doughts with our shoes and socks and breeches soaked and no dry clothes to put on. Another good watch in the little ditch of a front line, keeping their heads down and ready with their rifles and a machine gun in case the old Boche would come over."

"At 5 o'clock in the morning Mr. Short woke us up. We had a cup of scalding coffee and started up the communicating trench. It was raining and snowing and the water in the communicating trench was up to our ankles over the duckboards."

"It got dark early and the snow was so thick in the air you couldn't see the wire from the front trench."

"Mr. Short stopped us in the front line and explained what we were going to do. He had figured out that the enemy cut those wires last night so he could make a raid tonight. And if he didn't intend to raid he would certainly expect our engineers to be out fixing the hole—and would pot 'em."

"Our job was to crawl out under the wire on both sides of the hole. Mr. Short went on first and placed every man in position. We waited five hours. Then we saw a figure about fifteen yards away. I asked him to let me shoot. He said no and went at that object himself.

"And what do you think it was? Just an old post. We had all been staring at it so long that we were sure we saw it creeping. Well, the enemy pots away at the hole in five minutes, and almost all night and didn't hit a single American. Mr. Short simply outwitted him. And when there was a chance for someone to get hurt, he took the chance himself rather than give away our position by having him fired at."

Mr. Short, he it known, is an old "top sergeant."

"They didn't get me in the Philippines and they won't get me in France," he said to his command.

The Sammy finished cleaning the gun and gave the bolt a concluding snap.

"A good gun is like a gold watch," he remarked reflectively. "Treat it right and it's always on the job. I know something about both. I worked two years in the Waltham watch factory and six months in the Remington arms plant."
